

Archival Quality Folders Preserve Maps and Posters

Archival Large Folder at Fenton Historical Center

The Fenton Historical Center is using the Ulrich archival large folder for preserving large documents including maps and prints. They trust Ulrich archival large folders for this important job.

Importance in Preserving Community History

In the heart of any great community is a local historical center. These centers preserve the history of a community creating a sense of belonging, a pride in place and are an important factor in civic consciousness. This sense of history elevates any community. But it doesn't just provide good feelings. These centers provide a personal and tangible record of not only the community but a personal glimpse into the nations history.

Archival Large Folders are important for long term preservation

These local historians need the right materials to preserve these important historical documents. And over sized documents pose a difficult challenge. The Fenton Historical Center uses Ulrich archival large folder for maps, posters, plans and prints. These quality archival large folder have the following specifications:

- These folders come in a large variety of sizes.
- 20 pt. Heavy duty 0.020" thick stock
- Alpha Cellulose Virgin Fiber
- Buffered
- Lignin Free
- Non-bleed and non-fade pigments
- pH neutral
- passed P.A.T.

History paves our future

The Fenton Historical Center and Centers like it all over the United States preserve the personal and community history of our country. Examples of the type of history you will find at the Fenton:

- Swedish and Italian immigration and community development.
- Sites of the Underground Rail Road and personal histories of the people who participated.
- The emergence and decline of the furniture industry in the US.
- And noted people of the area – such as:
 - Lucille Ball – Actress
 - Robert H. Jackson – Lawyer who worked at the Nuremberg Trials
 - Roger Tory Peterson – preeminent American Naturalist.

See more about the Archival Flat File Folders

Article available at : <http://ulrichplanfiling.com/2016/01/archival-large-folder-preserved-maps-prints/>